PART C: RESIDENTIAL AREA COVENANTS

C-1 BUILDING REQUIREMENTS: Except as hereinafter provided, no lot or parcel shall be used except for residential purposes. C-4 GARAGES: No garage shall be erected on any lot prior to the construction of a dwelling. If a garage is built either simultaneously with or subsequent to the construction of a dwelling, the same shall be of the same kind of materials as the construction of the dwelling and shall be substantial and shall conform architecturally with the dwelling, and shall be attached to the dwelling.

C-8 OTHER STRUCTURES: No structure of a temporary character, trailer, house trailer, or tent, shack, garage, barn, barracks type structure, or other outbuilding shall be erected, maintained or used on any lot at any time, either temporarily or permanently, except that necessary construction sheds may be temporarily maintained during construction of a dwelling but shall be promptly removed upon completion of such dwelling and not later than six months after original commencement of the construction of such dwelling.

C-9 NO RE-SUBDIVISION: No lot or group of lots herein described shall be re-subdivided, except, however, an owner of more than one adjoining lots may sell part of one lot to the owner of the adjoining lot, but by so doing the remaining part of the lot will then become part of said owner's next adjoining lot and the balance will have to be sold as one tract.
